Passages: Luke 3:18-4:13

Questions:

- 1) John the Baptist boldly declared the truth of the Messiah. It would cost him in Luke 3:18-20. What lessons, encouragements, and challenges can we take away from John's example?

- 2) In Luke 3:21-38, the nature of Christ is revealed. Luke is straightforward in defining Jesus as fully God and fully man. Why is knowing this important for us?

- 3) In Luke 4, Satan will be permitted to tempt Jesus. What are the three areas of temptations that Satan challenges Jesus?

- 4) How does Jesus handle each of the temptations, and what lessons can we draw from Christ's example?

- 5) Application: In Jesus' final temptation, Satan changes his tactic a bit and uses Scripture to justify the temptation. Personally, when you are tempted to sin, how will you combat this tactic of Satan?
